

No-Go List

„Project Ironwood – Battle of Suentana 798“

These things are forbidden:

Clothing

- Boots like Rus/Sutton-Hoe/Hedeby Typ 8
- Rus/Birka hats/caps
- Frisian caps
- Hoods with tails
- Vest
- Pants and tunics of leather
- Rus/Baggy Pants
- Torques
- Capes of fur
- Viking jewelry (oval brooches, fibels)
- Wooden shoes (clogs)

Armor

- Visible collar protection like „Gambesons“ with straps
- Ocular helmets like “Gjermundbu”
- Vendel helmets
- Norman helmets with raised avantail
- Norman helmets like St. Wenzel
- Modern „Faceguards“ with leather, chains and so on
- Separately chains on armor and clothing
- Chainmail without arms like vests
- Modern Gambesons with straps on the frontside, if you need modern Gambesons or modern protection, you must wear it under the clothing
- Lammelar/Scale Armor
- Kiteshields
- Leather Armor

Others

- Weapons without sheaths (swords, seaxes, knives)
- Modern lettering or conspicuous colors on protection gear (gloves and so on)

Non-approved goods or camping stuff

- Plastic is an absolute taboo
- CDs
- Goods that are forbidden by law or that show forbidden symbols
- Preserved food in glass containers (jam e.g.)
- Goods related to the fantasy genre
- Cotton
- Goods that do not fit the event's topic (Romans, knights, etc.)
- Goods wrapped in plastic foil
- All sorts of goods forbidden by German law
- Imported and mass-produced goods should be limited to a minimum quantity
- Modern camping stuff for cooking
- African plugchairs

Non-approved decoration

- Fur and products of animals that did not live in early medieval northern and middle Europe (modern cows, animals from different continents, Longhorn skulls, etc.)
- Modern cuddly toys, modern dolls (teddy bears in chain mail, etc.)
- Flyers/ It will be possible to display them at the entrance. (Please inform the planning team what kind of flyers you want to display.)
- Coloured flags (showing Viking and Celtic patterns and pictures)